Springwood Varsity Scholars Bowl Team wins LAMP Invitational Tournament

The Springwood varsity Scholars Bowl team won the prestigious LAMP Invitational Tournament held Saturday at LAMP High School in Montgomery, AL. The team finished pool play with an excellent 4 and 1 record scoring wins over Hoover "B" (345-305), Enterprise (355-140), Central of Clay County (390-60), and Dothan (400-180). The only loss in pool play was to Spain Park (280-370). The Wildcats were one of only four teams to advance to the playoffs.

In the semifinals Springwood scored one of its greatest wins in school history defeating Hoover "A" (345-295). 7A Hoover High School is one of the perennial super-powers in scholars bowl competition not only in Alabama but the entire country. Springwood carried its momentum into the championship match avenging its loss to 7A Spain Park by defeating the Jaguars 350 to 180. Team members are (l-r) Venu Reddy, Tanner Martin (captain), Lauren Terry, and Catherine McClendon.
