Educating for Today, Tomorrow, and Eternity

PRESS RELEASE

January 8, 2016

Springwood School Chambers County Bee Representatives

Springwood School grade level spelling bee representatives for 4th- 8th grades competed against each other in order to select the Springwood participants for the Chambers County Spelling Bee. The Springwood students competing to go to the Chambers County Spelling Bee were Corbin Phillips and Hank Shuman (4th grade), Yasmyn Johnson and Michelle Chen (5th grade), Cooper Champion and Brady Spradlin (6th grade), Caroline Kambeitz and Kannon Key (7th grade), Tyler Ly and William Andrews (8th grade). These ten students did an excellent job representing their classes and deserve recognition for their effort and talent. These students will represent Springwood at the AISA District Spelling Bee at Edgewood Academy later this month.

Congratulations to Caroline Kambeitz (right) for winning the competition and the honor of participating in the Chambers County Bee and to Cooper Champion (left) for placing as alternate. The Chambers County Spelling Bee was hosted by Fairfax Elementary School on Friday, January 8th.
