The Springwood Scholars Bowl team placed 4th out of 24 teams in the elite Hoover Invitational

The Springwood Scholars Bowl team placed 4th out of 24 teams in the elite Hoover Invitational Tournament held Saturday at Hoover High School. Only one Alabama team placed higher than Springwood in the final rankings. The Wildcat scholars were a perfect 5 and 0 in pool play defeating Sylacauga B (420-45), Helena B (410-80), Vestavia (415-35), Woodford A from Kentucky (285-275), and Mountain Brook High School (265-155). Springwood was one of six teams to advance to the round-robin playoff. In the playoff Springwood had wins against Sylacauga A (290-180) and Spain Park (300-215). Losses came to James Clemens (230-355), Woodford A (250-365) and eventual champion Dorman A from South Carolina (95-500). Springwood senior Venu Reddy was the second leading scorer in the tournament. Springwood will travel to Wadley, AL Tuesday to compete in the Southern Union Tournament. Team members are (l-r) Ananth Reddy, Venu Reddy (captain), Anica Choi, and Kari Sims.
