Springwood JV Scholars Bowl Team placed second in the Hoover Invitational Tournament

The Springwood JV Scholars Bowl Team placed second in the Hoover Invitational Tournament on Saturday. Twenty-eight teams from 3 states competed in the prestigious tournament held at Hoover High School in Hoover, AL. The Springwood scholars finished pool play with a record of 5 and 2 scoring wins over Woodford B of KY, Indian Springs B, Gadsden, Muscle Shoals, and Mountain Brook. Springwood was one of eight teams to advance to the playoff rounds.

In the playoffs the Wildcats went on a 3 and 0 run defeating Indian Springs A (495-200), The Altamont School (385-160), and Woodford A from KY (350-215). This placed Springwood in the finals where they lost a close match to Hume Fogg of Nashville, TN (260-380). Team members (l-r) are Ananth Reddy, Venu Reddy, Kari Sims, and Anica Choi. Springwood sophomore Venu Reddy was recognized as the second highest leading scorer in the Hoover Invitational Tournament.
