PRESS RELEASE

Springwood students receive honors at the 2016 State Walter Trumbauer Festival in Florence December 13, 2016

The 2016 State Walter Trumbauer Theatre Festival was held in Florence at the University of North Alabama. Springwood Theatre Society's cast and crew of All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten performed at the State competition after receiving "Best of Show" at the District Trumbauer Festival in Opelika last month. Springwood junior, Kitty Key was selected as the Best Supporting Actress in a Studio Show (from All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten).

Kitty also took 3rd place in her vocal solo category with the song "Over the Rainbow", as well as receiving an Excellent medal for her acting monologue. Kitty is the daughter of Michael and Jennifer Key of LaGrange.

Also to be commended are Springwood students, Timmy Kwong and Lillie Hoats who received Superior medals in their respective categories of male solo acting contemporary dramatic novice and female solo vocal contemporary dramatic novice. Timmy Kwong is an International student studying at Springwood from Hong Kong. Lillie Hoats is the daughter of Kenneth and Heather Hoats of West Point.
