Springwood Scholars Bowl Team in Buckhorn Invitational Tournament

The Springwood Scholars Bowl team placed 5th out of 21 teams competing in the Buckhorn Invitational Tournament held Saturday in New Market, AL. The Wildcats finished pool play with a record of 5 and 1 scoring wins over West Point B (435-60), Gadsden A (340-295), Randolph School B (390-210), Good Hope A (305-225), and Covenant Christian A (430-185). The teams' only loss in pool play was to Hoover B (320-350). The win over Gadsden High School was especially gratifying as it was Gadsden's first loss of the year to an Alabama team. Springwood was 1 of 6 teams to advance to the playoffs where they lost to Hoover A (235-315).

Springwood junior Venu Reddy was recognized as the top individual scorer of the tournament. The team will be in action again on January 16th when they travel to Montgomery for the LAMP Invitational. Pictured (l-r): Anica Choi, Ananth Reddy, Venu Reddy, and Lauren Terry (captain).
