Springwood Scholars win District Championship

The Springwood High School Scholars Bowl team won the District VI Championship Tuesday at Chambers Academy. This was Springwood's 10th consecutive district championship. The Wildcat scholars finished the day with a perfect 4 and 0 record defeating Lee-Scott (515-130), Saint James of Montgomery (405-205), Chambers (505-55), and Glenwood (510-70). The team will now defend their state title for the 5th consecutive year as they advance to the AISA State Tournament on March 2nd at Huntingdon College in Montgomery.
