Springwood Scholars Bowl team placed third in the Buckhorn High School Invitational Tournament

The Springwood Scholars Bowl team placed third in the Buckhorn High School Invitational Tournament held last Saturday in New Market, AL. The Wildcats finished pool play with a 5 and 1 record defeating East Limestone (320-150), St. Bernard (400-110), Covenant Christian (370-120), and Hewitt-Trussville B (390-90). Springwood's only loss in pool play (on the final question of the match) was to Altamont (210-260). Springwood advanced to the playoff round losing to eventual champion Hoover High School (255-385). In the consolation match Springwood defeated Hewitt-Trussville A (455-235) to finish third in the event. Springwood senior Venu Reddy was honored as the tournament individual high scorer and MVP. The team will be back in action on March 8th when they travel to Montgomery to defend their AISA State Championship. Team members are (l-r): Ananth Reddy, Simon He, and Venu Reddy.
