Springwood School JV Scholars Place 2nd in ASCA State Tournament

The Springwood JV Scholars Bowl team placed second in the prestigious Alabama Scholastic Challenge Association (ASCA) State Tournament on Saturday at Hoover High School. Only 8 teams (Springwood, Altamont, James Clemens, Hoover, Buckhorn, Indian Springs, LAMP and Spain Park) from the entire state of Alabama qualified for the tournament. The teams were randomly divided into two pools with the winner of each pool advancing to the championship round. In pool play Springwood defeated Altamont in overtime (360-350), lost to James Clemens (315-370), and beat Hoover (365-250). Hoover and Springwood both finished pool play with identical 2 and 1 records with Springwood advancing to the championship round based on their head-to-head win over the Hoover Bucs. In the championship match Springwood lost to Spain Park (290-370). Springwood's ASCA JV finalist team members are (L-R) Ananth Reddy, Venu Reddy (captain), Anica Choi, and Kari Sims.
