New National Honor Society Members and Junior Scholars inducted at Springwood

Springwood School's Bianca Bettis Freeman Chapter of the National Honor Society conducted its annual induction February 10 in the school's Fine Arts Building. Eight juniors were tapped for membership in the Society, whose purpose is to recognize high school students who excel in scholarship, leadership, character, and service. At the same assembly, two ninth graders and six eighth graders were inducted into Springwood's Junior Scholars in recognition of superior academic achievement. Pastor Matthew Thrower was the keynote speaker.
