Springwood Scholars Bowl Team competes at the ASCA Tournament in Birmingham

The Springwood Scholars Bowl team tied for 5th place in the Alabama Scholastic Challenge State Tournament held Friday at Jefferson State Community College in Hoover, AL. Springwood was one of only 24 teams statewide that qualified for the tournament. The Wildcat scholars went 3 and 2 in pool play scoring wins over Jefferson County International Baccalaureate School (330-280), Donoho School (310-235), and Russellville (355-205). Springwood's two losses came against LAMP (290-350) and Hoover (295-370). Springwood was one of eight teams to advance to the playoff round entering as the number eight seed. In the playoffs Springwood lost a close match to the number one seed Spain Park 300-330. Springwood sophomore Venu Reddy was one of only six players selected as a member of the elite All-Tournament team. The ASCA Tournament includes both public and private schools of all classes throughout Alabama.

Venu Reddy selected for All-Tournament team
