

SPRINGWOOD SCHOOL

Educating for Today, Tomorrow, and Eternity

April 24, 2017

AISA Technology Fair

The following Springwood School students recently attended the AISA Technology Fair held at Faulkner University in Montgomery Alabama.

Jacob Blair, Anna Bolton, Will Craft, Nam Dang, Emily Drake, Yaniia Davidson, Molly Dycus, Mary Parks Ferguson, Meaghan Goddard, Caitlyn Harris, Luke Hudson, Benjamin Hull, Jeremy Kemp, Kannon Key, Lewis King, Cason Knotts, Natalie Langley, Carson Leva, Caroline Linch, Anthony Lowe, McLane Martin, Elizabeth McLendon, Brayden Moseley, Dallas Pearson, Trinity-Zion Perkins, Skylar Piper, Lucy Spivey, Andrew Stewart, Angelie Tran, Natalie Wolfe, Merredith Woodham, and Whit York

A large representation from the AISA district participated in the event. Students submitted projects in the following categories; Non-multimedia Presentation, Multimedia Presentation, Computer Graphics, Website Design, Digital Video Production, and Computer Programming.

Congratulations to Benji Hull for placing 3rd in Multimedia Level II with the project "Adolf Hilter's Reign in WWII" and Carson Leva for placing 2nd in Non-multimedia Level III with her presentation " Dominican Republic Class of '17".

