Springwood Scholars Bowl team competed in NAQT High School National Championship Tournament

The Springwood Scholars Bowl team recently competed in the NAQT High School National Championship Tournament at the Anatole Hilton in Dallas, TX. This is the third consecutive year that Springwood has qualified for the World Cup equivalent of Scholars Bowl. The AISA state champions (for the fifth consecutive year) finished with an excellent 4 and 6 record placing 187th out of 272 teams. Over 1400 students competed in the national tournament.

Rising senior Venu Reddy was the 10th highest individual scorer for the entire tournament and was awarded a trophy for making the All-Star team. Springwood's wins came against Valle Verde of El Paso, TX (305-60), North Hagerstown, MD (270-45), Solon B of Cleveland, OH (240-125), and St. Paul Academy of St. Paul, MN (250-235). Losses came to Grand Junction A of UT (95-295), Macomb, IL (205-330), Chattahoochee B of TN (145-380), Friends Select A of Philadelphia, PA (165-330), Milburn B of PA (170-255), and Helias A of Jefferson City, MO (120-155).

Team members are (l-r): Venu Reddy (son of Usha and Dr. Kris Reddy of Lanett), Ananth Reddy (son of Usha and Dr. Kris Reddy of Lanett), Anica Choi (daughter of Eunjoo and Ben Wilcox of West Point), and Simon He (son of Jan and Belin He of West Point).
