Springwood Scholars Bowl team competes in NAQT High School National Championship Tournament

The Springwood Scholars Bowl team recently competed in the NAQT High School National Championship Tournament. The event was held at the Marriott Marquis Hotel in downtown Atlanta on May 26th-28th. This is the fourth consecutive year that Springwood has qualified for the Super Bowl equivalent of Scholars Bowl. The AISA state champions (for the sixth consecutive year) finished with an excellent 5 and 5 record placing 163rd out of 304 teams. Springwood senior Venu Reddy was one of 25 students to make the all-tournament team. Out of over 1,400 of the top scholars bowl players in the country, Venu was the 13th highest individual scorer. Springwood's wins came against Chanhassen, MN (245-100), Bellaire, TX (330-180), Lasa C of Austin, TX (300-205), Olympian A from San Diego, CA (240-175), and Darien, CT (205-200). Losses came to Silver Springs, MD (200-320), Jefferson C of Alexandria, VA (155-235), Early College at Guilford A from Greensboro, NC (110-405), Carnegie Van Guard of Houston, TX (120-350), and Reagan of San Antonio, TX (225-290).

Team members are (l-r): Venu Reddy (son of Usha and Dr. Kris Reddy of Lanett), Anica Choi (daughter of Eunjoo and Ben Wilcox of West Point), Simon He (son of Jan and Bilin He of Lanett), and Ananth Reddy (son of Usha and Dr. Kris Reddy of Lanett)
