Kalyn Reeves Named Cheer Coach at Springwood

Springwood Headmaster Rick Johnson stated, “I’m very excited to announce that Kalyn Reeves has agreed to join the coaching staff at Springwood School as the Head Coach of the entire cheer program. Kalyn is a graduate of Atlanta Christian College (Point University). Ms. Reeves will bring energy and passion to the program.”

After her graduation from ACC she spent 18 months in a ministry in Birmingham, England.

Ms. Reeves was involved in competitive cheer from her early school days and throughout her high school career which culminated in being a member of the GHSA State Championship team in Competitive Cheerleading her senior year at Bremen (GA) High School. She won several individual honors as a cheerleader.

Springwood faculty members, Ms. Keri Brown and Mrs. Tara Ross will be serving as assistants in the cheerleading program. Coach Brown will focus mostly on the JV squad and Coach Ross will primarily be involved with the Varsity. Coach Reeves will be working with both squads.
